The Sign That Never Fails

As the liturgical season draws to a close, the readings deal with the last things: death, judgment, reward, and punishment. Jesus in the Gospel speaks of the end of the temple of Jerusalem. This end, points to another: the end of the present reality which will be transformed with the Lord's Second Coming.

We can discern, in the light of the Spirit, the paths of holiness to which the Lord is calling us. Otherwise, any decisions we make, may only be window-dressing that, rather than exalting the Gospel in our lives will mask or submerge it. For each disciple, it is essential to spend time with the Master, to listen to his words, and to learn from Him always. Unless we listen, all our words will be nothing but useless chatter. (Gaudete et Exsultate #150)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice.
GOSPEL ACCLAMATION – Alleluia! Alleluia! Lift up your heads and see; your redemption is near at hand. Alleluia!

PROPER DRESS CODE ATTIRE FOR MASS

Modern culture has done a lot to erode away many of our traditions as well as decency and reverence. Although the Catholic Church has no dress code when attending Mass, there is an unwritten dress code that demands we are properly dressed, out of respect, honour and reverence for the Real Presence of Our Lord.

To prepare for worthy reception of the sacrament, the faithful should observe the fast required in their church. Bodily demeanour (gestures, clothing) ought to convey the respect, solemnity and joy of this moment when Christ becomes our guest. –CCC 1387

WORLD DAY OF THE POOR Sunday 17 November 2019:

Pope Francis reminds us that, as disciples, we must be the ones to “sow tangible seeds of hope”. We are called to identify Jesus with each person that we meet, or whose story that we hear. We cannot remain enclosed in our own small circles without reaching out to others. Instead we must show loving attentiveness to each person in distress, seeking no reward for the love and support that we give.

GENEROUS DONATION FROM SACRED HEART SCHOOL

Special thanks to our School for their generous donation to enable the Parish to purchase a new Sanctuary Lamp and The Book of the Gospels.

Sanctuary Lamp - As you can see, we now have a new sanctuary lamp! It arrived last week from Italy. The sanctuary lamp's purpose is twofold. It reminds us that Christ is ever-present in the Tabernacle and is also a way for us to honour Him with a perpetual offering in His presence. For that reason, we decided to go with an oil fuelled lamp, to really make it an offering to God. Please keep the School in your prayers.
