24 November 2019 Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus, King of the Universe Year C

Feast of Christ the King

Our liturgical year ends with the celebration of Christ, the King of the universe. This is fitting because the end of human history and of the created world is the Lord Jesus through whom all things were made and by whom the world is being restored to the Father.

We need to remember that “contemplation of the face of Jesus, died and risen, restores our humanity, even when it has been broken by the troubles of this life or marred by sin. We must not domesticate the power of the face of Christ”. So let me ask you: Are there moments when you place yourself quietly in the Lord’s presence, when you calmly spend time with him, when you bask in his gaze? Do you let his fire inflame your heart? Unless you let him warm you more and more with his love and tenderness, you will not catch fire. How will you then be able to set the hearts of others on fire by your words and witness? If, gazing on the face of Christ, you feel unable to let yourself be healed and transformed, then enter into the Lord’s heart, into his wounds, for that is the abode of divine mercy. (Gaudete et Exsultate #151)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – Let us go rejoicing to the House of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION – Alleluia! Alleluia! Blessed is He Who inherits the kingdom of David our father; blessed is He Who comes in the Name of the Lord. Alleluia!
