16 February 2020*Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time*Year A*The Fulfillment of the Law

Jesus tells us today, that mere external observance of God’s Law does not make us His true followers. Our observance of the Divine Law must spring from inner conviction. May our Eucharistic celebration make us grow in love, a love that is free, responsible, and self-giving.

POPE FRANCES

Prayer of supplication is an expression of a heart that trusts in God and realizes that of itself, it can do nothing. The life of God’s faithful people is marked by constant supplication born of faith-filled love and great confidence. Let us not downplay prayer of petition, which so often calms our hearts and helps us persevere in hope. Prayer of intercession has particular value, for it is an act of trust in God and, at the same time, an expression of love for our neighbour. There are those who think, based on a one-sided spirituality, that prayer should be unalloyed contemplation of God, free of all distraction, as if the names and faces of others were somehow an intrusion to be avoided. Yet in reality, our prayer will be all the more pleasing to God and more effective for our growth in holiness if, through intercession, we attempt to practise the twofold commandment that Jesus left us. Intercessory prayer is an expression of our fraternal concern for others, since we are able to embrace their lives, their deepest troubles and their loftiest dreams. Of those who commit themselves generously to intercessory prayer, we can apply the words of Scripture: “This is a man who loves the brethren and prays much for the people” (Gaudete et Exsultate #154)

INFORMATION - MARRIAGE, DIVORCE & REMARRIAGE

Many separated and divorced people wonder about their status within the Catholic Church. They, as well as single men and women thinking about marrying a divorced person, wonder about the possibility of marrying in the Church.

The Church reaches out in support of people whose marriage has broken down, while upholding the permanence of a true marriage. These two aspects of the Church's position are especially evident in the sensitive work of the Tribunal.

There are varying situations and anyone who wants to clarify their marital status in terms of the law of the Catholic Church are welcome to contact Theresa Harvey at the Tribunal on 07 4632 7443 or
